UNDERSTANDING POINTS

Learn About Booking With Your Membership

With RCI Points, enjoy the flexibility to travel your way using Points. Your vacation ownership is assigned a Point value, which will be the number of Points you'll receive each Use Year. A Use Year starts at the beginning of the month following the setup of your account and is a recurring 12-month period in which your RCI® Subscribing Membership is based. Once you have your Points, use them to book your choice of RCI-affiliated resorts and other travel options.

When & How To Book An Exchange

You can book your trip up to two years in advance. Take advantage of your time and book early, especially if you're looking for popular dates & destinations.

When you're ready, start searching for your next destination online at RCI.com or call an RCI Travel Guide.

Pro Tip: If you need more Points to book your trip, you can save Points from the previous year or borrow Points from next year. If you need more time to use your Points, you can extend them into a third Use Year for a fee.

WAYS TO EXCHANGE

Go More Places Using Your Points

Use your Points to book 1- to 21-night stays at 3,600+ resorts around the globe.

Trade a resort stay for a getaway at sea. Apply your Points toward select cruises and unlock additional savings and perks.

Combine your Points with cash to lower nightly rates at over 600,000+ hotels worldwide.
